OVERVIEW
Proton beam therapy (PBT) uses a beam of protons that are targeted in a precise manner to irradiate specific diseased tissue while minimizing exposure to surrounding areas.

CLINICAL COVERAGE CRITERIA
Tufts Health Plan considers proton beam therapy covered as medically necessary for the following indications:
• Melanoma of the uveal tract (iris, choroid, or ciliary body) with no evidence of metastasis or extra-scleral extension
• Skull based tumors (e.g., chordomas and chondrosarcomas)
• Medulloblastoma
• Brain and spinal cord tumors

LIMITATIONS
Tufts Health Plan considers proton beam therapy coverage excluded as not the least intensive, most cost-effective service that can safely and effectively be applied for the following indications:
• Prostate cancer
• Intracranial arteriovenous malformations (AVM)
• Acoustic neuroma
• Hepatocellular carcinoma
• Lung cancer

Tufts Health Plan considers proton beam therapy non-covered, investigational for the following indications:
• Age-related macular degeneration
• Bladder cancer
• Breast cancer
• Choroidal hemangioma
• Gastrointestinal cancers, including esophageal and pancreatic
• Gynecological cancers
• Head and neck cancers
• Lymphomas

Note: Tufts Health Plan considers proton beam therapy in combination with intensity-modulated radiation therapy (IMRT) to be noncovered, investigational for any diagnosis.

Background, Product and Disclaimer Information
Medical Necessity Guidelines are developed to determine coverage for benefits, and are published to provide a better understanding of the basis upon which coverage decisions are made. We make coverage decisions using these guidelines, along with the Member’s benefit document, and in coordination with the Member’s physician(s) on a case-by-case basis considering the individual Member’s health care needs.

Medical Necessity Guidelines are developed for selected therapeutic or diagnostic services found to be safe and proven effective in a limited, defined population of patients or clinical circumstances. They include concise clinical coverage criteria based on current literature review, consultation with practicing physicians in our service area who are medical experts in the particular field, FDA and other government agency policies, and standards adopted by national accreditation organizations. We revise and update Medical Necessity Guidelines annually, or more frequently if new evidence becomes available that suggests needed revisions.
For self-insured plans, coverage may vary depending on the terms of the benefit document. If a discrepancy exists between a Medical Necessity Guideline and a self-insured Member’s benefit document, the provisions of the benefit document will govern.

Treating providers are solely responsible for the medical advice and treatment of Members. The use of this guideline is not a guarantee of payment or a final prediction of how specific claim(s) will be adjudicated. Claims payment is subject to eligibility and benefits on the date of service, coordination of benefits, referral/authorization, utilization management guidelines when applicable, and adherence to plan policies, plan procedures, and claims editing logic.
